I was born near Kempton, Germany. I had eight years in our country grade school, we walk, no buses. Two years I went to town one day a week to study Home Ec., foods, literature and gardening. This is all the education country children get unless the parents can afford to keep them in town and pay tuition which is very high. I read a notice in our paper, asking for exchange students, with at least one year English. I had no English but had always wanted to come to America, so I answered. I was so surprised to be called to take the exam. After passing, I tried to find an English teacher but could not. On July 13, 350 students, sponsored by five churches, sailed from Rotterdam, for America. I left without knowing one word of English, was the only one on the ship who couldn’t speak English. We brought very few clothes because they were too short. This is because of the price of material. After arriving in New York, we went to Washington, D.C. by bus. The strangest things were people drinking water with their meals and women driving automobiles. I was most impressed by the monuments. We rode our first elevators and tasted cooked corn, which none of us liked. We were afraid of the negro waiters because we had never seen a negro. From here I went to Celestine. I was so afraid to start school and surprised to see how it was, so nice. I don’t want to leave D.H.S., but would like to stay and finish, because I would never have it so nice and beautiful as it is here. The nicest thing that ever happened to me was when the pupils gave me my watch at Christmas. I enjoy the ball games, we do not have them at home. I’ll never forget my school. I know I will get homesick for my school when I get back to Germany. I have to tell the truth, the teachers and pupils are so friendly, my goodness, I can’t say how nice you can be, never like German teachers. Mr. Kreitzer, the principal, makes jokes and fixes things that are broken. I couldn’t believe it when I first saw it. German principals just sit on their chairs and act smart. America is so wonderful. The people are so kind and friendly, they live more comfortably and the food is better. We just have meat and white bread once a week. Below is a picture of the back of my home in Germany, the house and barn is under one roof. If you want to write me and I hope you will, my address is below.

Thirty-five Freshmen were enrolled in Dubois High School for the school term, 1948-49. Our faculty consisted of: A. J. Kreitzer, Principal; Mr. Zehr, Grammar; Mr. Seger, Commerce and Coach; Mrs. Schiller, Math and Latin; Mr. McCutcheon, Science; Mrs. McCutcheon, Home Ec; and Miss Shriver, Commerce and Grammar. Our class sponsor was Mrs. McCutcheon. At the beginning of the basketball season, Wannita Kalb was selected as cheer-leader. Gerry Schiller and Thelma Jean Dem were selected as our basketball queen attendants.

When we returned for our sophomore year, we had lost three of our members: Alois Welp, Albert Vogel, and Herman Evans. This year our basketball queen attendants were Thelma Jean Dem and Hilda Mae Eisenhut. Again Wannita Kalb was selected as cheer-leader. Also we had a new girls' physical education and English teacher. She was Mary Florence Seng.

6 more of our members didn't return for our junior year of schooling. They were: Norma Leistner, Genevieve Hoffman, Doris Bemtrup, Robert Mehringer, Albert Zehr, and Robert Otto Mathies. However we received a new member, Ed Wineinger. We received two new faculty members. They were: Mrs. Ellis, Commerce and Grammar; and Miss Walker, our music teacher. Once again Wannita was our cheer-leader. Hilda Mae Eisenhut and Thelma Dem were selected by our class to be our basketball queen attendants. The juniors had a magazine campaign. This didn't amount to very much cash for our class. Our class play was "Great Caesar's Ghost!" Mr. Kreitzer was our class play sponsor. At the end of April the juniors were hosts for the Junior-Junior Banquet and Prom. Mrs. Ellis was our class sponsor.

Again in our senior year, we had a change in faculty. Miss Sater, Miss Quebbeman, Miss Coomer, and Mr. Walker replaced: Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. McCutcheon, Miss Walker, and Mr. McCutcheon. Mr. Zehr was our sponsor for "Eye on a Rampage", our senior class play. Leroy Fried- man and Ed Wineinger were, elected as editor and assistant editor of the year book. Mildred Breitwieser was chosen as editor of the school paper. Hilda Mae Eisenhut was chosen as the basketball queen of Dubois High School. Her senior attendants were: Geraldine Schiller and Thelma Dem. Dorothy Pieper was elected as Prom Queen. Our Dubois High School Beauty Queen was Wannita Kalb, who represented us at the Holiday Festival at Huntington. This was also the fourth consecutive year that Wannita Kalb was our cheer-leader. So our schooling ended with the Baccalaureate Service held on April 20th and the Commencement on April 25th.

So much to our sorrow we must say goodbye to a grand group of students, faculty, and a grand, grand old school, old D. H. S! [Signature]

CLASS WILL

We, the seniors of the class of 1952, being simple minded and forgetful after four strenuous years, do hereby make, and declare this as our last will and testament. We leave to wit: to wit!

To the faculty, we will the patience to have better success with the classes to come.

To the juniors our ability to change subjects in class and talk about politics.

To the sophomores our slowness in getting important things done for school.

To the freshmen our ability to get out of class for social activities.

INDIVIDUALLY WE MAKE THE FOLLOWING REQUESTS:

I, Leroy Friedman, will my mischievousness to Roger Zehr.

I, Richard Mathies, will my ability to change seats during assemblies to be able to sit behind a certain girl to Franklin Potts.

I, Wannita Kalb, Will my "Yell Leadership" to Patricia Padgett.

I, Bill Arnold, will my love for power glide cheese to Kenneth Hall.

I, Harold Mathies, will my ability to take other boys' girl friends out to who ever has the nerve.

I, Geraldine Schiller, will my ability to giggle in Mr. Zehr's classes to my sister, Ruth Ann.

I, Nelda Eisenhut, will my ability to be content and patient to Patricia Himsel.

I, James Weikert, will my quietness and ambition to study to Ed Seitz.

I, Dennis Sander, will my ability to keep my mind on school and not on girls to Max Hayes.

I, Lenard Oelhause, will my slow way of reciting to Wilma Gilson.

I, Donald Nichmiller, will my love for beat up cars to knock around in to Ernest Mathies.

I, Harold Ebner, will my laughing spells and excess weight to Edward Bauer.

I, Mildred Bredtweiser, will my editorship to the Jeep Echo to Marlene Himsel.

I, Alice Seitz, will my ability to study and make good grades to Geraldine Demu.

I, Joan Grieve, will my ability to take a lot of teasing without getting mad to Imer Bauer.

I, Theresa Demu, will my love for tall men to Peggy Nordoff.

I, Marelwa McGuire, will my politeness and courtesy to Janet Hodges.

I, Marilyn Rasche, will my ability to sew to Mary Ellen Fees.

I, Patrick Himsel, will my love for frequent trips to our camp to Richard Kreitzer.

I, Dorothy Pieper, will my ability to be bashful and my way of getting along with everyone to Shirley Nordoff.

I, Mary Ann Schott, will my easy manner and dimples to Esther Weikert.

I, John Stearn, will my laziiness and mischeiviousness to Melvin Mayer.

I, Marvin Semmrshein, will my ability to do nothing and get by with it to Robert Thacker.

I, Elder Himsel, will my innocent smile and bright remarks to Vernon Mathies.

I, Danny Friedman, will my ability to work hard to advance in basketball to Teddy Conrads.

I, Mary Eileen Howakamp, will my fast but not thorough way of doing things to Joan Sanders.

I, Edward Weineinger, will my liking for tormenting girls to Bobby Joe Ziegler.

I, Bobbie Mathies, will my never changing affection for a certain senior girl to George Perkins.

I, Donald Padgett, will my art talents and winning ways with red heads to Herman Heeks.

I, Albert Pieper, will my height to Franklin Thaising.

I, Manning Hall, will my ability to agree on class problems and questions, also my quietness during classes to Kenneth Knae.
CLASS PROPHECY

(Excerpts from The Judsonian)Year 1960

Paula, June 24, 1960 New York: Miss Minnie Halp, noted hair stylist predicts that the fashion for Missy's hair this year will be a straight short bob. She has been wearing her hair this way for several years and movie Director Elmer Hissel of Levith Pictures Inc. finds it very attractive. In fact, he says he will insist that his leading actress, Thelma Denu, wear the new hair style in her next picture, "Growing Up In Dubois", written by Daniel and Leroy Friedman, noted authors.

July 4, 1960 Philadelphia: Noted politician and senator Harold Mathies gave the principal address at the 4th of July ceremonies here today. Senator Mathies and Mrs. Mathies, the former Miss Hilda Blumhout, plan to spend a few days here in our fair city with two of their high school chums, Richard Mathies and Jerry Schiller. Richard is a prominent architectural engineer, having been the brain behind our beautiful new skyscraper. Miss Schiller is now a famous lawyer, and at this time she is battling the most important case of her career. She feels she owes a lot of her success to her faithful secretary, Dorothy Pieper. Also she says that the judge in this trial, Judge Edward Wineinger, has been very generous to her, since they were high school classmates.

July 20, 1960 Paris France: Retired farmer Patrick Hissel, on a tour of Europe is reported by his doctor, Dr. Marvin Somer Khách, to be in ill health. He has been assigned a special nurse, Mary Ann Howard, for the remainder of the trip.

August 1, 1960 Cairo, Egypt: Geologists Alice Seitz and Mildred Breitweiser reports interesting new discoveries of rare pieces of art. Since these are out of the line they will turn them over to Donald Fadett and the Mrs. Marilyn Roach, for their art collection.

August 4, 1960 Fort Bourbon, Mo.: Captain Merelan McGuire of the Spars was today promoted to the rank of Major.

August 4, 1960 Detroit, Mich., Donald Eichmiller of "The Automobile Company" has come up with an ultra modern design for cars. He plans to name this new car the "Jody Special" for his high school sweetheart, Joan (Jody) Greer.

August 10, 1960 Broadway, New York: Rowencamp and Weikert, famous playwriters today opened the theatre doors on their new hit "Hinky Dinky Dog".

August 30, 1960 Arizona: Sgt. William Arnold, Army tester of new jet cars, today made the fastest ride of his career. The new jet-2, designed by Leonard Gelhausen and Dennis Sander attained a speed of 300 miles per hour.

Sept. 17, Haysville, Indiana, Harold Huebner, owner and operator of Huebner's Service Station here announced today that he has purchased the Halbert's Club, a swank night spot and that he plans to let the present manager, Channing Hall and Albert Pieper have charge of it.

September 28, 1960 Chicago, John Slane coach of the "Windy City Jeep's" announce that his team would surely win the national title this year as one of his star players, Bobby Gene Mathies, is from his own home town, Dubois, Indiana. Both agree that much credit for their success is due to the wonderfull climate and healthy atmosphere of the warm little town.
