DEDICATION—2:00 P.M.

Articles of Dedication

When the need for a new high school in the Dubois community became an absolute necessity, a meeting was called and representatives of the state department of education were consulted about possible procedures.

After numerous meetings a holding company, known as the Harbison School Building Corporation, was formed. The incorporation stock was set at $5,000 and the bond issue was established at $190,000. The bonds were sold to an Indianapolis firm.

A petition was circulated among the taxpayers of Harbison Township and when the response was almost unanimous in approval of the project, the architect was hired and bids for building were taken.

On September 10 the contract was awarded to William Elledge of French Lick for $163,821. Included in this figure was the heating and plumbing by Cleo Quinn of Shoals for $44,596 and the electrical work to the Huebner and Kidwell company of Loogootee at $15,968.

Due to inclement weather, work on the building was not actually started until March 23, 1959. The building was completed in time for school on August 31, 1959.

Many people are responsible for this building, but the plaque in the hall lists the following:

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1956, 49 Freshmen entered a building where they would be spending three years of their high school life. We were greeted by the following faculty members: A. J. Kreitzker, Principal; Ralph Seger, Coach, Commerce; Wilma Beckman, Home Economics; Henry Seger, English; Elmer Zehr, Social Studies; Paul Phillips, Mathematics; Richard Kemper, Music; John Lyons, Commerce; and Aaron Parks, Vocational Agriculture.

Mr. John Lyons was our class sponsor. The following were elected class officers: Pres.--Fred Harder, Vice-President--Leon Seitz, Secretary--Ruth Hemmerlein, Treasurer--Sue Harder, Reporters--Jeanie Beckman and Kenny Traylor. Queen Attendants were Sue Harder and Mary Ruth Vogel. Gene Sendelweck and Fred Harder represented us at the Algebra contest.

In September of 1957 we entered Dubois High School again but this time as Sophomores. During the summer we had lost William Terwiske, William Kane, and by the end of the year we were to lose Helen Jones. Class officers were President--Bill Kalb, Vice-President--Don Eisenhut, Secretary--Bill Petry, Treasurer--Leon Seitz, Reporters--Joan Hasenour and Pat Schnell. Paul Phillips was our class sponsor. Ruth Hemmerlein and JoAnn Bair were our Queen attendants.

Norman Sendelweck and Margaret Stamm represented us at the Latin contest at Jasper. In the Geometry contest Gene Sendelweck and Fred Harder represented Dubois.

As Jolly Juniors we returned to find that Gerald Haase, Pat Schnell, Bill Hochgesang, Perry Knies, Bill Neukam and Linda Huff would not be with us, but we gained Mrs. Rose Mary Harris. The faculty changes were Miss Marilyn Martin replaced Mrs. Wilma Beckman and Mr. Howard Anderson replaced Mr. John Lyons.

Our Class sponsor was Mr. Henry Seger and class officers were President--Leon Seitz, Vice-President--Fred Harder, Secretary--JoAnn Bair, Treasurer--Kenny Traylor, Reporters--Ima Jean Fuhrman and Sue Harder. Queen attendants were Sue Harder and Margie Humbert. JoAnn Bair was elected cheerleader from our class. Under the direction of A. J. Kreitzker we presented our class play "Finders Creepers" on April 24 and 25.

We closed our Junior year with entertaining the Senior Class at our Junior-Senior Banquet-Prom.

Upon returning as Seniors we found that we had a new building in which to spend our last year at D.H.S. When the roll was taken we learned that Jeannie Beckman would not be with us. James Cawood replaced Ralph Seger as Coach and Commerce teacher.

Mr. Elmer Zehr was our class sponsor. Class officers were President--Bill Kalb, Vice-President--Gene Sendelweck, Secretary--Bill Petry, Treasurer--Norman Sendelweck, Reporters--Sue Harder, Mary Ruth Vogel, and Margaret Stamm.

"Here Comes Charlie" our Senior Class play was presented on Oct. 29 and 30 under the direction of Mr. Henry Seger. JoAnn Bair was again chosen cheerleader. Under the direction of A. J. Kreitzker we started work on the Jeep Echo and The Echo.

At the Huntingburg Christmas Festival on December 5, Margie Humbert represented our school as Holiday Queen. Margaret Stamm represented our class as the DAR Good Citizen.

Mary Ruth Vogel was crowned Basketball Queen on January 15, 1960 with Ruth Hemmerlein and Ima Jean Fuhrman as her Senior Attendants.

The Senior members of the Beta Club enjoyed seeing the Ice Review. Jo Ann Bair and Bill Kalb were crowned Prom King and Queen at the Junior-Senior Banquet-Prom.

The Baccalaureate services were held on May 8. This was followed by the Commencement on May 10, at which time Margaret Stamm gave the Valedictory and Gene Sendelweck gave the Salutatory.

We are happy that we were priviledged to be the first class to graduate from the new Dubois High School building and wish to express our collective appreciation to the people who made it possible. May we strive to serve the community and school in direct proportion to what they have given us.

CLASS WILL

We the Seniors of 1960, of the Dubois High School, State of Indiana, hereby make, publish and declare this our last will and testament.

To the faculty we will our excuses, which we are so good at making.

To the Juniors we will our ability to get along with teachers, our salesmanship, and all our senior dignity.

To the Sophomores we will our dislike for getting down to business.

To the Freshmen three more long years of study and happy school adventures.

To the cooks and the janitor, all our old gum and scuff marks that we may have left behind.

More specifically and individually we leave the following:

I, JoAnn Artman leave my long hair to Mary Lou Jones.
I, Jo Ann Bair will my ability of "Cheering the Jeeps on to Victory" to Judy Sendelweck.
I, Lucy Beyke leave my love for talking to someone with enough wind to do so.
I, Robert Bleemel will my ability to wear glasses, to see the girls better, to my brother Leroy.
I, Mary Lou Brosmer leave my ability to "go steady" to Barbara Buchta.
I, Carol Jean Buchta will my citizenship grades to my cousin Judy Bauer.
I, Don Eisenhut will my ways of doing anything I please in Government Class to Victor Fromme.
I, Brenda Fickas will my sweet personality to Joann Zehr.
I, Gary Huebner will my good grooming to Charles Mauntei.
I, Patricia Hoover will my stately figure to Judy Hopf.
I, Ruth Hemmerlein leave my love for band to Hank Jones, and my ability to keep a steady boy friend to Sue Anderson.
I, Joan Hasenour will my privilege to ride in a '59 Ford to any girl that lucky.
I, Rose Harris will my ability of being the only student to pay attention in classes to Jerry Kern.
I, Fred Harder will my height and poise to Jerry Mathies.
I, Sue Harder will my ability to dominate the drum section in the band to Theresa Hodges.
I, Ima Jean Fuhrman leave my trim figure to Mary Lou Schott.
I, Margie Humbert will the honor of being chosen "Holiday Queen" to Sue Ann Nigg.
I, Bill Kaib leave the honor of winning the "Good Sportsmanship Award" to my cousin Gene Kaib.
I, Robert Kiefner will my inability of telling day from night to Virginia Mathies.
I, Clifford Krodol leave my preaching tactics to David Keusch.
I, Roman Lampert will my sweet smile to Edward Mundy.
I, Donald Leistner will my ability to attract freshman girls to Linus Lampert.
I, Dennis Opel will my ability to make wise-cracks to Herbert Burke.
I, Ambrose Merkel will my corn crops to Clara Mae Scheper.
I, Bill Petry will my ability to drive a '59 Chevie to Bob Hilton.
I, Betty Lou Pieper will my red hair to Imelda Scheper.
I, Carol Pieper leave my ability to make good grades in shorthand to my sister Betty.
I, Marie Potts will my pretty and neat appearance to Helen Blume.
I, Carol Ruckriegel will my ability to copy my lessons and get good grades to anyone who can get by with it.
I, Thomas Reuber will my mighty muscles to Ralph McBride.
I, Delmar Schroering leave my ability to break upsteadies to Larry Theus.
I, Leon Setz will my nickname "Miss" to anyone man enough to acquire it.
I, Gene Sendelweck will my love for basketball to Dennis Loveall.
I, Norman Sendelweck will my DA haircut to Dennis Sendelweck.
I, Margaret Stamm will my ability to be DAR Good Citizen to Helen Rasche.
I, Kenneth Taylor will my neat wavy dark hair to John Padgett.
I, Mary Ruth Vogel will the honor of being selected basketball queen to Sue Anderson.
I, Annabelle Weikert leave my pretty black hair to Barbara Breitwieser.
I, Leon Weineinger leave my ability of going steady with older girls to Dennis Sendelweck.
