The Echo

Dubois High School
Dubois, Indiana
Published by the Seniors
Dear Reader,

As you journey through these pages you journey through life, for these pages represent life. We of the Echo Staff sincerely hope that in the years to come this issue of "The Echo" will represent to you many cherished memories of the past.

Our four years of high school life are now at an end. We must step forth and face a very uncertain future. If in the years to come a glance at this yearbook will enlighten your life, we will deem our efforts worthwhile.

We would like to express our sincere gratitude to all those who have given of their time in producing this record of our high school life. We enjoyed making it. We hope you enjoy reading it.

We live in deeds, not years;
in thoughts, not breaths;
in feelings, not figures on a dial.

---Philip James Bailey

Class History

On August 31, 1960, fifty-four boisterous freshmen entered the halls of Dubois High School. They were greeted by the following faculty members: A. J. Kreitzer, Principal; Elmer Zehr, Social Studies; Paul Phillips, Mathematics; Henry Seger, English and Latin; Gary Ahrens, Band and Chorus; Vineta Britzius, Home Economics; James Cawood, Commerce and Health; William Slattery, Commerce; Lester McCoy, Biology and Chemistry; Aaron Parks, Vocational Agriculture; and Wallace Thacker, Driver Education. During the year Brenda Laswell and Wilbur Seger also joined our mighty ranks. Mr. Slattery was our sponsor and under him the class officers for the first year were: Karen Stamm, President; Mike Breeding, Vice-President; Bob Kalb, Secretary; Eugene Bonifer, Treasurer; and Judy Knies, Class Reporter. We chose Kathy Hentrup and Judy Knies as Queen Attendants, and the Freshman Cheerleaders chosen were Karyl Bauer and Karen Stamm. Richard Harder and Wilbur Seger represented Dubois at the Albera Contest at Jasper.

In the fall of '61, we returned to find the following faculty changes: Mrs. Shirley Lythgoe and Mrs. Jere Brewster replaced Miss Britzius, Miss Alice Baker filled the first semester for Mr. McCoy. We also discovered that five of our class members had departed from our halls, but we gladly welcomed Cyrilra Mathews, Clarissa Merkel, and Sharon Gehlhausen. Mr. Phillips was our sponsor for the next hectic year. Our class officers were Richard Harder, President; Gary Leitsner, Vice-President; Donna Eisenhower, Secretary; Judy Knies, Treasurer; and Connie Eisenhower and Ken Ziegler, Class Reporters. Karen Stamm was chosen as Junior Varsity Cheerleader. Again Judy Knies and Kathy Hentrup were Queen Attendants.

When after four months of vacation the class gathered together again, we met new faculty members: Miss Marilyn Thaller replacing Mr. Seger; Miss Lois Smith replacing Mrs. Lythgoe; and a new teacher, Miss Carrie Robling. Karen Stamm, Sharon Gehlhausen, and Eugene Sendelweck attended the Regional English Contest at Huntington. We found that three of our class members were no longer with us. Mr. Phillips tolerated our class for one more year as sponsor with the assistance of Cyrilra Mathews, President; Clarissa Merkel, Vice-President; Richard Harder, Secretary; Karen Stamm, Treasurer; and Kathy Hentrup and Kathy Zehr, Class Reporters. Our Royalty consisted of Donnie Vaughn and Kathy Hentrup, Junior Carnival King and Queen; and Kathy Hentrup and Cyrilra Mathews, Queen Attendants. Under the direction of Miss Thaller we presented our Junior Class Play, "Honey in The Hive." The last event of the school year was the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet at which we entertained the Senior Class. During the summer Ken Ziegler, Eugene Bonifer, and Rosemary Pieper represented D. H. S. at Hoeuser Boys' State and Girls' State, respectively.

With the arrival of fall we once more piled in the hallowed doors of D. H. S. greeted by a substantial change in faculty: Mr. Rex May replacing Mr. Cawood; Mr. Cecil Goff replacing Mr. Slattery; Miss Lynn Moss added as a new teacher; Miss Nancy McBride taking the place of Mr. McCoy; and Mr. James Fieister replacing Miss Robling. We discovered that three more fellow students had left our class. Mr. Zehr was our patient class sponsor; and class officers were Richard Harder, President; Cyrilra Mathews, Vice-President; Bob Kalb, Secretary; Donnie Vaughn, Treasurer; and Eugene Sendelweck and Jim Wininger, Class Reporters. We were glad to welcome John Kalb into our class. On November 1 and 2 we presented our Class Play under the direction of Miss Thaller. Title: "The Atomic Blonde." Cyrilra Mathews was elected Basketball Queen for 63-64 with Donna Whittemore and Judy Knies as attendants. Rosemary Pieper received the D. A. R. Good Citizen Award. Donnie Vaughn and Kathy Hentrup reigned as King and Queen of the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. The Baccalaureate Service was held May 10, followed by Commencement on May 13, 1964 at which time Karen Stamm gave the Valedictory address and Ken Ziegler the Salutatory address. Thus after four years of memories, our high school days were ended and once more we passed through the doors of D. H. S., this time never to return.

"Honey in the Hive"

The Junior Class presented "Honey in the Hive" May 3 and 5, 1963. The story was about the Masons, a down-to-earth American family made up of John, the head of the house; Janet, the real head of the house; Betty Lou, a fifteen year old aspiring debutante; Connie, a seventeen year old future college coed; and Wilbur, a thirteen year old atom bomb.

The remaining characters include Bernadine Smith, a friend of Betty Lou; Suzanne Coday, "dotter" of V. Hamilton Coday; Wilbur's arch enemy, Arthur Coday; Roger Coday, a spoiled "lady killer"; Mr. Coday, a political boss and owner of the town; Mrs. Coday, arrogant and the very epitome of fashion; Mr. and Mrs. Davis, middle-aged, and all around "good people"; and Mrs. Allen, fond of recipes, is the "salt of the earth."

On November 1 and 3, 1968, the Senior Class presented "The Atomic Blonde." The plot centers around Nickerson's Hotel and Healthitarium, a summer resort in Dubois. Skidmore Werling and Bob Nickerson are two enterprising young men who are operating the hotel to help pay for college expenses in the fall. Wilella Wylie and Adelaide Burkleigh-Banks are two ardent club women who have come to the hotel. The whole plot is intermingled with a series of love affairs; Miss Wylie has brought along her fiancé Mr. Finchley St. John III; Doreen Burkleigh-Banks, daughter of Adelaide, holds a special attraction for Skid Werling; Doreen's friend, Betty Hartford is "head over heels" in love with Bob Nickerson; Katinka Katzenpfeffer feels "honky-donky-dory" over the town "constable," Syl Butterfish; Mr. Gurney Maddox, the town lover is out trying to make a "catch."

Then the star of the cast, Doogie Deane, nephew of Wilella Wylie, makes a real strike disguised as "the Atomic Blonde."

Other characters who add to the fun of the play are Mrs. Philo Pratt, disguised as "the headless haunt;" Pamsimonius Jackson and Oriole Byrd, the colored servants.
