In Memory Of...

Andy Spellmeyer

February 6, 1987 - February 9, 2000

Sadly, Andy is no longer with us. We should all remember Andy's life rather than his death and recall the friend we once had and will always have in our hearts for the rest of our lives.

In Loving Memory for our classmate, Andy Spellmeyer, who died on February 9, 2000. Gone is the face we loved so dear, silent is the voice we loved to hear. Too far away for sight or speech. But not too far for thought to reach. We cherish all the memories we have of you.

Cross-Country has been a very memorable experience the past four years. Especially when we had a mud fight at our campout! Channing Friedman
"High school has more running activities and we work a lot harder." Dustin Betz, Freshman

"I was really excited to go to state, and ecstatic that I made it." Ethan Merkel, Junior

"I’m going to miss the coaches and the camps, but not the hard practices." Dana Sander, Senior

"A sport is considered a school activity. You should have to pass five classes to participate in it." Tia Winenger, Sophomore

"I want to be just like Dana Sander when I grow up." Jessica Warninger, Sophomore

"The most memorable moment was running in semi-state last year." Jeff Balka, Senior

"Well, well improved team. Not a bad race all season." Coach Betz

"Crazy Courageous athletes! This definitely exemplified our 2004 team!" Coach Schulthies

Do you think it’s fair that you have to pass five classes to participate in a sport?

Yes 100%
No 0%

Where would you rather run?

We keep our students in our prayers...

And Jesus said, "Go therefore, make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, teaching them to carry out everything I have commanded you; and know that I am with you always to the end of the age!"
Matthew 28:18B

Congratulations, Josh!
We are so proud of you.
Dare to dream, and having dreamed, let it be your guide. As you step out now on your own, keep these thoughts by your side. A ready smile will open many doors. A helping hand will never be alone. A loving heart will always find its rest, and trust in God will bring true happiness. Throughout your journey, we will love and support you.
